Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota
Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Joe M. Laber, and we are richer because Joe lives among us; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Joe was born April 2, 1904; and,

Whereas, Joe was always an avid fisherman, hunter and loves to play cards; and,

Whereas, Joe now resides at Avera Bormann Manor at Parkston, South Dakota, and will observe his 100th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a man who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim April 2, 2004, as in South Dakota, and I join his friends and relatives in wishing him a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of March in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
